PRINCIPAL SPEAKS

It gives me immense pleasure to present Glimpses, the annual newsletter of Dikhowmukh College, which continues to serve as a vibrant platform for sharing the achievements, activities, and aspirations of our college community. Over the past few years, Glimpses has successfully reflected the collective spirit of our institution — celebrating the academic progress, cultural richness, and innovative initiatives that define our journey.

The year gone by has been remarkable for Dikhowmukh College. Our students have excelled in academic and co-curricular arenas — participating in seminars, workshops, and inter-college events with great zeal. Equally commendable are our faculty members, whose dedication to research, mentoring, and innovative teaching continues to enhance our academic environment. Events such as the College Week, Freshman Social, Farewell Ceremony, and various departmental activities have strengthened bonds within our campus, nurturing a sense of unity and belonging.

Guided by our Institutional Development Plan (IDP), we remain committed to advancing the college's academic landscape through digital innovation, skill-based education, and research-driven learning. In the coming years, our focus will be on fostering interdisciplinary collaborations, improving infrastructural facilities, and creating avenues for holistic student growth. We aim to transform Dikhowmukh College into a hub of knowledge creation and community engagement in the region.

I extend heartfelt appreciation to the editorial team of Glimpses for their hard work in capturing the spirit of our institution so beautifully. Let this newsletter continue to inspire every reader to strive for excellence and uphold the ideals that make Dikhowmukh College a centre of learning, creativity, and leadership.
